Join Adult Riders and Young Riders for a
Show Jumping Clinic with Robin Walker,
Grand Prix Show Jumper and ICP Level IV Instructor.

Robin Walker is best described as a rider, trainer, teacher, clinician, competitor, breeder, and ICP Level IV United States Eventing Association instructor. Following extensive competition and training experience in the United Kingdom, Robin migrated to the United States in 1996. He is an active competitor at the three-star level in eventing, as well as in Grand Prix show jumping events. Robin was one of the founding forces of the USEA's Instructor Certification Program (ICP) and is both a faculty member and assessor for the program. He sits on the Future Event Horse Committee and runs a sporthorse breeding and training program out of his home base, Maute House Farm, in Grass Lake, Michigan.
